REPORTED MURDER.

Of Will Shaw, of Paducah, on the Chattanooga.

Shipped as a Rooster Thursday—Unconfirmed.

A report gained wide-spread circulation today to the effect that Will Shaw, a Paducah man, had been killed on board the towboat Chattanooga a day or two ago up the Tennessee river, by Jerry Osely, another rooster.

A reporter undertook to trace the report to an authentic source, but it was impossible. Shaw is a well known young colored man, and a member of the local colored band.
Last week he shipped aboard the Chattanooga, together with several other Paducah men, for the Tennessee river, after a tow of five days.
The boat is supposed to now be up somewhere about Sheffield. The report was that Shaw and several other roosters got into a fight, and Shaw was killed by Osely. This is all that is known of it. The boat is expected back this week.

DAVE REED

And How His Spree Came Near Being His Death.

Shot Saturday By Mrs. Cal Waggoner.

Dave Reed, better known as "Curran," is in the county jail with a dangerous wound in his right breast.
He was shot Saturday night shortly before 10 o'clock by Mrs. Cal Waggoner, who resides on Monroe street, between Second and Third. Mr.
Wagoner runs a shooting gallery on Broadway, back of Lang's drug store, and does not reach home early on Saturday.
The negro went to Mr. Wagoner's and pressed against the door. He was ordered to leave by Mrs.
Wagoner, who was alone with her little daughter, but refused. Mrs.
Wagoner then fired three shots from a 38-caliber pistol, one of which struck the intruder in the breast. He left and was subsequently found confused behind the boilers at the Gas works, where he is employed as fireman. He was taken to the lockup, but subsequently, on account of the ominous signs and threats on the streets, transferred to the county jail.

Reed is well known in Paducah, and has worked here for years. Until Saturday he was never known to molest any one, especially a white person, his principal fault being getting too much whiskey. He claims he was so drunk he didn't know where he was, but Mrs. Wagoner, in the opinion of all, did right in taking no chances.

Reed was reported at the jail this afternoon as unimproved.

ORDERED TO HAVANA.

The Warship Maine Starts for the Island of Cuba Immediately.—What Does
It Mean.

Congressman Evans Will Not Endorse Geo. Todd for Surveyor of Port at Louisville.

Washington, Jan. 24.—The war ship Maine has been ordered to proceed to Havana at once. Secretary of War, Long, says that the mission of the ship is peaceful. Nevertheless rumors by the hundred fill the air and it is believed by many that intervention by this government will soon take place.

OFF FOR HAVANA.

United States Cruisers Leave Jacksonville in Haste.

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 24.—United States cruisers sailed for Havana in great haste last night, and great excitement prevails over rumors of violence to Consul General Lee and other Americans.

WIND AND FLAMES.

Narrow Escape at Cairo, Illinois.

Building Blown In, Followed By a Fire.

Cairo, Ill., Jan. 24.—Another fire occurred on Ohio levee about 6 o'clock Saturday evening, and only efficient work on the part of the fire department prevented one of the most disastrous fires in the history of the city. Part of the wall of the City National bank building, the upper floors of which were burned in the fire of January 1, fell over on the building of Louis Herbert, occupied as a soda water and beer depot. The office was smashed in, the stove turned over and the fire resulted, completely gutting the building. H.
A. Cushman was in the office of the Herbert building when the wall fell in, and he barely escaped with his life. The Western Union office adjoined the burned building and Manager Clark got out his instruments at once, as it seemed that the block could not be saved. Uncle Joe's Hotel, next to the Herbert building, is damaged to the extent of a few hundred dollars, which is fully covered by insurance. The insurance on the Herbert building is $1,000.

DR. TALMAGE MARRIED.

Noted Divine, Wedded to Mrs.
Elmore McCutcheon Collier, of Allegheny, Pa.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 24.—Rev. T.
DeWitt Talmage, the noted divine of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Elmore McCutcheon Collier, of Allegheny City, were united in marriage Saturday at the McCutcheon residence, 47 Irvin avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Robinson, D. D., pastor of the First United Presbyterian church. The wedding, which came as a great surprise to the many friends of the couple, was on account of a recent death in the family an extremely quiet affair. The only guest outside of Mrs. Talmage's immediate relatives was Dr. L. H.
Willard.

Mrs. Talmage is the daughter of the late James McCutcheon, of the big iron firm, Lindsay & McCutcheon.
She was the widow of Charles W.
Collier, only son of Judge F. H.
Collier. She is forty years old, while her husband celebrated his sixtysixth birthday several months ago.
Mr. and Mrs. Talmage met during the past two summers at East Hampton, a Long Island resort, where the romantic courtship which culminated five months ago in a formal engagement was carried on. The engagement was kept a profound secret, and it was only within the past few days that Mrs. Talmage's most intimate friends were apprised of the coming marriage.

The present Mrs. Talmage is the reverend gentleman's third wife, his second wife having died several years ago.

Killed By a Posse.
Augusta, Ga., Jan. 24.—Arthur Jennings, who assassinated Joe Brinson last night and wounded Jim Pryor, was surrounded in a house in the country several miles from Augusta Saturday and while resisting arrest was shot to death.

CAUGHT IN THE FLOOD.

Doctor's Horse Breaks Away From Buggy, and He Swims Ashore.

Cynthiana, Ky., Jan. 24.—Dr. J.
H. Vandoren while going to administer aid to the sick in the Sycamore district, this county, Saturday, had to cross the Sycamore Creek, which was swollen from the heavy rain that fell all day. While in the middle of the stream the horse became unmanageable and broke loose from the buggy. The doctor had to swim to the shore, and had a very narrow escape from drowning. Farmers came to his rescue, and with ropes managed to anchor the buggy, after it had been badly damaged.

WATSON MAY GET IT.

Rumor That Ex-Congressman Will Succeed Butterworth.

Columbus, O., Jan. 24.—A persistent rumor has it that ex-Congressman D. K. Watson is to be appointed commissioner of patents to succeed Major Butterworth. General Watson is not here tonight, but it was discovered that he intends to go to Washington today.

GLEARS FOR KLONDIKE.

First Vessel To Depart Sails From Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 24.—The first vessel to leave this port for the Klondike gold district cleared Saturday. She is the once famous pilot boat, Thomas F. Bayard. She will go via Cape Horn and the Straits of Magellan. Ascending the Yukon as far as navigable, a settlement will be made and a sawmill erected. A transportation line will be started to trade up and down the Yukon River.

EVANS REFUSES.

Will Not Endorse George Todd
For Surveyor of Port.

Washington, Jan. 24.—Hon. Walter Evans, of Louisville, refuses to endorse ex-Mayor Todd for surveyor of port at Louisville. This will probably put an end to Todd's aspirations for that position, if indeed he is actually a candidate.

DEATH OF JUDGE HINES.

Occurred Yesterday At His Home
In Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 24.—Ex-Chief Justice Thomas H. Hines, one of Kentucky's most distinguished sons, died yesterday morning at his home in this city. The funeral will take place here this afternoon. The remains will be taken to Bowling Green for interment. Judge Hines was a Captain in Gen. John Morgan's brigade during the civil war, and one of the most daring and successful officers in that famous command.

SUPPRESSED EXCITEMENT

Among Americans in Cuba, But Quiet is Reported at Havana.

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 24.—The commander of the naval station at Key West received a message from Gen. Lee yesterday afternoon. He is safe, the city is quiet, but there is suppressed excitement in the American colony.

1100 VOLTS.

Close Call of an Illinois Central Employee.

Stepped on a Live Wire Saturday Night.

Mr. T. E. Tabscott, hostler at the Illinois Central shops, had a narrow escape Saturday night in the freight yards. The gale blew down a smoke stack, and with it several wires. The engine ran over the wire and ground the insulation off. Mr. Tabscott subsequently stepped on it, and was rendered unconscious in an instant.
He was picked up for dead, and carried to the railroad hospital, where he was soon revived. He received 1100 volts, according to the doctor.
Yesterday he was able to leave.

OIL COMPANY FORMED

To Work the Well at Uniontown, Union County.

A decisive movement will be made here in a short time toward ascertaining the wealth of the immense natural oil fields underlying Uniontown, says the Uniontown Telegram.
A home company has at last been formed with a stiff and substantial backing, and something of material benefit to Uniontown will be enacted here in regard to this matter in a short while. Mr. A. C. Chapman, of Findley, Ohio, contractor and builder of oil and gas wells, is due in this city now. He comes for the purpose of endeavoring to obtain the contract for boring the proposed oil well. This important movement on the part of influential citizens interested in a certainty, and as Mr.
Chapman will arrive here today or tomorrow a decisive action will be taken in the matter at once.

OF COURSE HE WILL COME.

Bryan Will Address the Kentucky Legislature Some Time Next Month
by Invitation.

The Anti-School Book Trust Bill Favorably Reported.—Other Notes of the Legislature.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 24.—Representative Sanders again tried to call up the Lindsay resignation resolution but could do nothing. The silverites are determined to pass this resolution, but it is very evident that they can not do it.

Hon. Wm. J. Bryan has accepted the invitation to address the legislature and will do so some time next month.

The anti-school book trust bill was today reported favorably and will probably be passed.

Gov. Bradley is anxious to have a big demonstration of Kentuckians upon the occasion of the christening of the battleship Kentucky. He thinks the legislature should attend and take along six companies of the state guard. "It is the last time, at least in this generation," he said, "that Kentucky will be so honored, and the legislature should show the state's appreciation by making a sufficient appropriation to send enough troops there to make a creditable display. The legislature by all means ought to attend, as only one legislature day would be missed. A special train for the governor and staff and the legislature would leave Frankfort about 3 o'clock in the afternoon and arrive at Newport News the next morning in time for the christening.
It would start homeward that night and arrive here early the next morning. The christening will take place about March 1."

SUDDEN DEATH

Of Miss Mollie Keithley This Morning.

Coroner Phelps Called to Hold an Inquest.

Miss Mollie Keithley died suddenly this forenoon about 11 o'clock at 705 South Eleventh street, where she was a domestic. The girl was about 19 years of age, and had been complaining, according to reports, for several days of being ill. This morning she died without warning.
One report was that she dropped dead and another was that she died in bed.
Coroner Phelps was called, and this afternoon at 3 o'clock was holding an inquest over the remains. The girl's home is said to be Mayfield, and heart failure no doubt caused her death.

WANTS A DIVORCE.

Lewis Irwin. She alleges cruel and inhuman treatment; that he choked, beat and bruised her.

Death at the Hospital.

afternoon at the city hospital.

NEWS NOTES.

Representatives of a Pittsburg company have struck a rich flow lubricating oil at Blaine, Ky.

Three well-known Frankfort citizens—Judge Thomas H. Hines, Dr.
J. Q. A. Stewart and Mr. Oscar Farmer—are at the point of death.

The Shelby county grand jury has returned forty-four indictments, several of which are against druggists for selling cocaine.

At a mass meeting of citizens of Shelby county it was decided to appoint a committee to formulate a plan for free turnpikes.

Spanish soldiers have taken possession of the village of Esperanza, the headquarters of the rebel government. The insurgent officials escaped, but the government buildings were burned.

Collector Franks, of the Second district, denies that he has formulated any plan to evade civil service rules, but says he will put in republicans wherever possible.

The state of Kentucky, by its attorney general, W. S. Taylor, has filed suit against the C. and O. Railway company at Paintsville for unlawful discrimination.

Half a million dollars stock and bonds of the Avondale Cotton Mills, Birmingham's new industry, have been disposed of and the plant will begin operations May 1.

A bill to publish the pension roll was introduced in the senate Saturday, but it is said that the republican leaders in the house will kill it because it will involve an appropriation.

The House foreign affairs committee has favorably reported the resolution calling for information in the Ruiz case. The House agreed to the senate amendment to the bill requiring depositors of bullion to pay transportation costs.

A statement prepared by the assigned shows the liabilities of the Kentucky Trust company to be $152,110, while the nominal assets are $119,293.89. It exposes Vice President Reinecke's methods of jag-glery and the "rotten" condition of the company.

Reinecke's weekly review of trade says: "A large measure of activity in business and industrial lines, with in some instances, previous records surpassed, and very general steady-ness in prices of staples, is perhaps the most notable feature of the trade situation this week. * * * The industrial situation, with the single exception of the cotton industry, is one of exceptional strength." R.
G. Dunn & Co's review says: "With a volume of business remarkable for the time of year—38 per cent. larger than a year ago, and 10.4 per cent. larger than in 1892 in payments through the clearing houses—it is not discouraging that one or two industries are lagging."

THEIR BOAT SWAMPED.

The Narrow Escape of Four Men Yesterday.

Rescued From Backwater By Mr.
Lum Coleman.

Contractor Lum Coleman saved four men from a watery grave in the backwater out near the stock yard yesterday afternoon.

Their boat swamped, and precipitated them into the water. The only thing that saved them was a tree, and all four sized the branches with desperate clutch. Their cries of distress were heard by Mr. Coleman, who was at the stock yard. He rushed down to the water's edge and saw that quick action must be taken.

Several boys were rowing near the bank in a "john-boat." This he borrowed and pulled out to the rapidly weakening strangers. Each began him piteously to take him to dry land first. "Take me first! take me first!" was what they all said. One was standing on the submerged half buoyant boat, while he grasped the barge of a limb nearby.
It was evident that he could not hold out much longer, and Mr. Coleman rescued him first. He then went back after the others one at a time, the boat not holding but this many. The water was eighteen feet deep where the accident occurred.

Mr. Coleman learned two of the men's names, Bethel and Brannon.

Rich Legislators.

There are some rich men in the general assembly of Kentucky. The aggregate wealth of the following eight members is estimated at $2,000,- 000: John T. Hinton, of Bourbon; W. H. Cook, of Warren; Walter Sharp, of Bath; C. J. Branstetter, of Fayette; J. M. Thomas, of Bourbon; William Goebel, of Kenton; C. Steggs, of Louisville, and H. G. Petree, of Todd.

Mr. John T. Hinton is reputed to be the wealthiest member, while it is said that none of the eight falls under $100,000, and the average is $250,- 000. Several of them are the most active opponents of corporations and trusts that can be found in the legislature, or even in the state.

Eight or ten other members are reputed to be worth from $25,000 to $75,000, and possibly one or two of them would reach $100,000.
